

Assignment 02

The Gandhian philosophy of Non-Violence was a manufactured project of the British government to neutralize the fanatics that existed within the Indian National Congress. Critically examine the above statement with credible and authentic evidences and sound arguments. (Max. 1000 words)

Guidelines:

- Critically analyse the Gandhian philosophy of Non-Violence and its historical context.
- Examine the pros and cons of the Gandhian philosophy and the arguments of both the advocates and opponents of the said philosophy.
- Mention the major challenges and opportunities that were brought forth by the policies of both Mughal emperors with reference to religious pluralism and tolerance.
- Research the topic thoroughly before writing your assignment.
- Give proper references, where necessary.
- The assessment should contain credible facts and figures supporting your arguments.
- Avoid biased and stereotypical statement. Academic writing will be appreciated.
- The assessment must not be more than 1000 words.
- Plagiarised/AI-generated content will not be accepted. Copy/Paste will lead to rejection of the assessment.
- Both typed and legible handwritten assignments are acceptable, but only in hard form. Submission through email will not be considered.
- The deadline for submission is Friday 6th October, 2023 before 04:00 PM. Late submission is not acceptable.
- The title page must contain Roll. No, Full Name, Name of Course, Title of Assignment, Program of Study and Section.

*****